Scholars from Arlington's Class of 2019 Set to Soar:

College Signings by Reinhardt and Broward to be Captured May 22

(FAIRBURN, GA – May 21, 2019) Arlington Christian School's (ACS) class of 2019 is set to do just what eagles do: soar! The amazing class of 22 seniors has a very promising future ahead of them, both individually and collectively. Two of the scholars will have representatives from their chosen institutions on Arlington's campus (4500 Ridge Road in Fairburn) May 22, 2019 at 10:30 a.m. to capture the moment. Those scholars and schools are Justin Robinson, Reinhardt University and Kefa Sampson, Broward College. Justin, who is also Arlington's Valedictorian and recipient of the Atlanta Journal Cup Award, will be attending Reinhardt on an academic and athletic scholarship. Kefa, recipient of Head of School award, will be attending Broward on an athletic scholarship.

"We could not be any prouder of this year's graduates," states Dr. Vanessa O. Johnson, Arlington's Head of School. "Each of them has so much potential, and it was certainly a joy to have them under our tutelage." Arlington's Director of Athletics, Greg Cannon, adds, "Arlington has such a rich heritage in athletics and academics that it is very fitting to see Justin and Kefa reach this milestone. They are great representatives of what Arlington is all about."

The class, which was essentially dominated by males (16 boys and 6 girls) reflects 95% of the alumni heading to college (19) or an institution of higher learning (2). One scholar will be beginning an entrepreneurship venture. Also, 60% graduated as members of Arlington's Chapter of the National Honor Society (NHS), and 18% graduated as Honor graduates with averages of 3.5 or better. The school's Salutatorian, Dean Walston, will be attending Fisk University on an academic scholarship.

In addition to the honors listed above for Justin and Kefa, other honors bestowed at the touching ceremony included: Board of Trustees Bible award: Chandler Barrow and Jazmine Coleman; Board of Trustees President's award: Lauryn Hill; Principal's award: Nicolas Knott; Counselor's award: Femi Akinola and Kefa Sampson; 13-year award: Nicolas Knott; 12-year award: Malcolm Gaskin, Jose Morales and Justin Robinson; Athletic award: Femi Akinola; Academics award: Jose Morales; and Citizenship award: Chauncey Willoughby. Founded in 1959, Arlington Christian School (ACS) is a private institution that is accredited through the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS), now known as AdvanceEd. The School is also accredited through the Georgia Accrediting Commission (GAC). It is the mission of ACS to help children grow as Jesus did "in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man," according to Luke 2:52. Since its inception, ACS has graduated exceptional scholars who perpetuate the Arlington legacy all across the nation as an institution that provides quality education in a Christian environment. ACS is registered with the IRS as 501(c)3 nonprofit organization.
